Thomas Hodges PHOTOGRAPHER FROM Grambois, France

LONDON December 5th 2005 - Art Photographer Thomas Hodges of Grambois, France, was presented with the 2006 Black and White Spider Awards Nominee in the category of Abstract, at a prestigious live online Awards Ceremony presented by Black and White Spider Awards to recognize excellence in black and white photography.

Thousands of images were received from over forty countries. The nominated photographers were selected by a who's who Judging Panel from the international photography community, including Magnum Photos (New York), Tate Gallery (London), and the Leica Photo Gallery. The Panel reviewed the images online over a four week period and Thomas' "HiHi" an exceptional image entered in the Abstract category, received a high percentage of votes overall.

"The Spider Awards celebrates photographers who operate at the highest levels of their craft," said the awards Creative Director, Basil O'Brien. "Thomas' work represents black and white imaging at its finest, and we're pleased to present him with the Nominee Award."
